

CONTENTS

PREFACE 1976 : Dr. Claude Duvernoy	2
FOREWORD : Dr. David Flusser	7
PART ONE: From the Origins to the Prophets	10
I The Vision of History in Antiquity	11
Egypt	12
Sumer	13
Athens	13
Rome	14
II The Biblical Concept of History	17
Some problems posed by the election of Israel	18
An attempt at a biblical definition of History	24
III Zionism in the Hebrew Bible	27
Abraham	28
Isaac	33
Jacob	35
Moses and the first Zionist epos	41
The exodus from Egypt and the stage of History	49
Notes on the Torah as revelation	53
IV The Dialectics of Exile and Return in Israel's Prophetical Writings	57
Amos	57
Hosea	60
Joel	62
Isaiah	66
Micah	72
Jeremiah	73
Ezekiel	77
The post-exilic prophets	83
Haggai	84
Zechariah	86
Daniel	89
V General Conclusions	92
PART TWO: From Jesus to Herzl	96
I The Zionist Climate at the Time of Jesus	97
The political situation in the Holy Land	97
The Jewish Diaspora	100
An analysis of Messianic Hope in the Holy Land	103
Jesus and the Messianic Mystery	107
The temptation in the desert	108
The temptation of the Crown	110
The Great temptation in Jerusalem	111
The Messianic Misunderstanding	112

The Zionist vision of Jesus	116
The evangelisation of the world	116
The messianic birth-pangs	119
The parousia of the Son of Man	120
II The Apostle Paul's Zionism	123
III The Church and Israel	128
IV Zionism before Theodor Herzl	146
Zionism in the Talmud	147
Zionism in the Prayer Book of the Synagogue	149
Zionism in the Psalms of Ascent	153
Zionism in the Passover Haggadah	156
The false hopes	157
Forgotten Jerusalem	162
The Zionist Rabbis	165
V The Zionist significance of Israel's Martyrdom	180

PART THREE: The resurrection of Israel or

The beginning of the Messianic Era	187
I The Zionist Turning Point of Contemporary History	188
1917: The Balfour Declaration	188
From 1917 to 1919: The Balfour Declaration Betrayed	192
1939: The abomination of the "White Paper"	196
1948: The Birth Pangs	201
1956: The Sinai Campaign	208
1967: The six-day war	212
The Yom Kippur war of 1973 and its consequences	216
The hard way towards redemption	223
II The Spiritual Crisis in Israel	227
III Prophetical Aspects of the State of Israel	242
The ingathering of the exiles	246
The renaissance of the Hebrew language	250
Kibbutzim (The Communal Life)	254
The revival of the Neguev	258
The biblical revival	262
The aid to the new nations	266
IV The Church in the Israeli Nation	273
V The Eschatological Significance of Israel	280
The beginning of suffering	285
The Gospel preached to the world	286
The abomination in the Sanctuary	288
Cosmic troubles and the Parousia	292
VI A Definition of Zionist Theology	297
The Yom Kippur War of 1973 and its consequences	308

Postscript	317
Bibliography	319
By the same author	321
Index of Scripture references	322
Index of Names	325
Contents	327